THE New York paper and sensible people everywhere are laughing over the public meeting held in Albany, N. Y., denouncing Mr. DAVIS and his Montgomery speech.

THE anti-tobacco war in Massachusetts has commenced in earnest. The order has been issued not to allow the use of tobacco by the officers and inmates of any of the prisons and reformatory institutions. The next step will doubtless be a law declaring the manufacture, use or sale of tobacco a penal offense.

WHILE the labor strikes throughout the country have and will continue to entail much misery not only upon those directly engaged therein but all others indirectly, they will result in much good if a fair and equitable basis of arbitration shall be reached that will prevent their recurrence in the future.

THE Asheville papers have recently been full of the correspondence in reference to the affair between Mr. RICHMOND PEARSON and Gen. JOHNSTONE JONES. Since the publication of Mr. PEARSON's last letter we are rather inclined to lean in his direction. Gen. JONES' charge of cowardice in the McAyden difficulty at Raleigh last year falls to the ground, when it develops that Mr. PEARSON did not resent the assault through the advice and counsel of warm personal friends who were chosen as his seconds. To this charge of Gen. JONES' may be traced the whole cause of the present misunderstanding.

THE new advertisement of the Piedmont Wagon Works on the 2nd page in this issue, has the right ring about it. We admire its stand in opposition to convict labor as embodied in the following quotation:

We work no convicts, which class of labor is now doing so much to degrade and cripple that better class of free labor, which is the great hope and stay of the South, in her onward and prosperous career of building up her waste places and enriching her borders. * * * The Piedmont don't make as cheap a wagon as might be made by using some of the convicts in the North Carolina Penitentiary which it could lease for their board and clothes. It will keep good company or none.

In very marked contrast to the above is the Wetmore Shoe Manufacturing Co., of Raleigh, which concern employs convicts to make shoes for honest men to wear, and for less money probably than honest men can make them for, thus occasioning an unwholesome competition between honest labor and convict labor, a thing which in due time, we predict, will be tended by the boycott from every Knights of Labor assembly in the State.

A CHAT WITH OUR SUBSCRIBERS.

In changing the form of THE SENTINEL from an eight column folio to a six column quarto, we are enabled to give to our readers, without increase of the subscription price, nearly, if not fully, twelve columns of matter in excess of what we formerly furnished. We trust that the change will meet with the approbation of our readers and for the purpose of ascertaining their views on the subject, we respectfully request that each subscriber drop us a postal and express his or her opinion as to the change.

Sometime in the future it is our desire to have a folding machine, which will enable us to present the paper with the pages nicely cut and pasted.

Now one word regarding finances: We have many interesting features in store for our readers, by whose substantial encouragement we are being aided in making THE WEEKLY SENTINEL not a merely local paper, but a North Carolina journal ranking with any rival in point of interest, influence and circulation. The efforts that are made from time to time to give our readers new attractions cost money and we look to them for the "where-withal" to defray these extra expenses. Notwithstanding this has been a very dull year, THE SENTINEL is to be congratulated upon the promptness with which its patrons have come forward and paid their subscriptions. There are still a few who have neglected this important duty either from force of circumstance in some cases, and others from force of habit. These readers are just as warm friends of THE SENTINEL as the more systematic ones, and can at almost any time cancel their arrears. It is our desire that all our subscribers stand on the same footing and to bring about this result, we make the following offer.

We will present one of our hand-some lithograph crayons of Governor SCALES to every subscriber who between now and the 1st of July pays up to January 1st, 1887. We want to begin the new year of 1887 with clean books and we make this early start to do it. After each account is settled up to January 1st, it will be no difficult matter for all of our subscribers to make their annual payment henceforward as they become due. By this adherence to business method, we will be relieved of the unpleasant task of reminding our readers of their arrears, and it will allow us to expend more time and money and energy in improving THE SENTINEL, and making it even a more popular newspaper than its present increase in circulation would justify us in believing it to be.

JEFFERSON DAVIS AT MONTGOMERY.

April 29th was a gala day for Montgomery. It was the occasion of the laying of a corner stone of the Confederate monument by Hon. JEFFERSON DAVIS, who made a brief address.

Thousands of people listened attentively to his remarks and bore every evidence of the great esteem in which they still hold him; nor can this esteem or these honors be misconstrued by reasonable and unprejudiced people.

JEFFERSON DAVIS, aside from his personal qualities, is commended to the tender affection of the Southern people because of the fact that he was singled out as the object of merciless persecution, which fortunately failed of its ulterior objects, and the additional fact that he has been systematically and persistently pursued and maligned for twenty years in order to depreciate and humiliate the Southern people, and bring opprobrium upon the cause for which their best and bravest blood was shed, and which they still cherish as a sacred memory.

The cause was submitted to the sword, and the decision was against us. The South could gracefully and in good faith yield to defeat. It recognizes the fact that the right of secession was revoked by the last great revolution, and it is laboring with hand and brain for the perpetuation of a union of hearts as well as a union of States. It will not, however, stoop to dishonor the men whom it should honor in age and adversity, as they were honored in the days of their power and prime. This is why JEFFERSON DAVIS is regarded with warmest esteem throughout the South and will continue to be until he shall have "crossed over the River and rested on the other side beneath the shade of the trees."

PERSONAL.

Editor Thompson of the Yanceyville News is said to be also publisher, postmaster and jailer.

Mr. W. A. Jenkins, Jr., son of the late Attorney General, has been nominated for Mayor of Oxford.

Rev. Dr. Theo. Whitfield, of Goldsboro, has accepted a call to the pastorate of the New Bern Baptist church.

Maj. Chas. H. Smith, ("Bill App"), will lecture at Wilson, Tarboro, Enfield and other points in Eastern North Carolina early this month.

Rev. Thomas Hume, D. D., Professor of English Literature at the University, will preach the commencement sermon at Thomasville Female College Commencement.

Rev. Dr. Skinner has again resigned the pastorate charge of the First Baptist Church, of Raleigh. Disensions in the Church are the reasons assigned for the resignation.

Rev. James A. Weston, the rector of the Church of the Ascension (Episcopal), in Hickory, has placed his resignation in the hands of the vestry, to take effect June 1st. Mr. Weston will go to Yorkers, N. Y.

Rev. E. H. Wiley, is busily engaged in gathering statistics for his report upon the internal commerce of the State for the National Statistical Bureau. Dr. Wiley has also been called upon to write an elaborate article upon capital and labor in this State.

Col. W. F. Beasley, of Oxford, has tendered Governor Scales his resignation as President of the Confederate Home Association. The plan of establishing the home has fallen through. It never was on a very substantial basis, and met with little general support and sympathy.

CURRENT COMMENT.

We wish to say every honest man in the land in possession of a place worthy of being called by that sweet, heaven-declared word "home."—Pittsboro Home.

Judge Clark, who was once an editor, said to us while here at court, that editors were the most over-worked and underpaid of any class in the world. It is so.—Caneblow News.

It appears from the statistics that the number of arrests in the prohibition city of Portland, Maine, is greater in proportion than in the liquor-license city of Charleston, S. C.—Richmond State.

The laboring man—the man who does manual labor—who would commit violence to make other people come to his terms, is as great a tyrant as the capitalist who would squeeze labor down to the lowest possible figures regardless of justice.—Kinston Free Press.

In New Hanover county there are 1,707 more colored than white children and they receive $3,219 more than the white children. Here's another lesson of kindness by the white man towards the colored man, because the white man pays the taxes.—Laurinburg Exchange.

SALAD FOR SADNESS.

The hiccup is not the cup that cheers.—Boston Transcript.

A strike is an early closing movement.—Detroit Free Press.

It is a wise railroad stock that knows its own par.—Boston Beacon.

"That was a sad blow," exclaimed the man whose house had been overturned by a cyclone.—National Weekly.

A man in Georgia found a pocketbook containing a large sum in purified bank notes. This is hard luck.—Courier-Journal.

"Will Greece fight?" asks the Boston Herald. We should say that if this weather continues she will probably run.—Lowell Citizen.

Even in his old age the Abbe List is a good business man. The people have eagerly taken up his notes in England.—Boston Budget.

Hazleton has a baseball club called the Mug wump. Nine kickers ought to be able to make it interesting for the umpire.—Pittsburg Chronicle-Telegraph.

Rhode Island is going to adapt constitutional prohibition. When a man gets intoxicated in that State and staggers very much he is very liable to fall off.—New Haven News.

Mrs. Mary A. Hunt says: "I have voted for several years and there's no board on my chin yet." Don't despair Mary. Let your chin rest and it will grow.—Burlington Free Press.

EASTER.

BY ELLIEN OLDHAM.

Once more we greet the mysteries of life,
And watch the bud a branch or blossom blossom.

Around our paths the dainty tokens peep
Bearing the cruciform, like flowers of snow.

Once more through maples red the robin flits,
From eave down till dusk his note is wood.

The sunny growing hours are none too long
To trill his love notes in his blithe mood.

Once more the chiming tolls 'tis Easter morn,
And high our altars rise with sheaves of bloom.

Sweet incense floats from out the lily-bells
That gently swing before the empty tomb.

Once more we listen to the olden story,
How doubt and darkness over Olivet hung;
Then radiant morning and the risen master—
The joyful tidings that the Marys sung.

Once more our hearts grow lighter, and the burden

That cumber better things seem rolled away
By angel ministry when frail hands alter,
And flee like shadows at the dawn of day.

Once more we greet the prophecies of life—
The risen Saviour see, and wait the coming King.

In resurrection glory with the saints in light,
Is why, to day, in sweetest song we sing.

AMELIORATIONS.

A FAIR FRIEND OF THE SENTINEL WHO IS ENTHUSIASTICALLY GETTING THINGS MIXED.

No "Amelia," the man you saw didn't have his head knocked off as an oyster, by a boiler explosion, or his arm broken in three places below the elbow by a railroad accident. It was neither of these, my dear. He had simply been practicing at the roller rink.

THE GIST OF THE NEWS.

HAPPENINGS OF THE WEEK AT HOME AND ABROAD.

The Cream of the Wire Caught by The Sentinel's Careful Condenser.

THE WEST.

The Congressional Investigation Committee is in session at St. Louis.

The bank of Marietta, Ohio, failed on the 29th. Over speculation was the cause.

Six or seven men are reported killed in Chicago Monday night, in labor troubles.

The Mississippi river at Helena, Ark., on the 29th, was eleven inches higher than ever before known.

An earthquake shock that swayed buildings and broke windows is reported from Athens and Nelsonville, Ohio.

A body of Indians attacked two ranches 20 miles south of Pantane, Arizona, on the 29th, and killed eight persons.

The pork-packers at Chicago stock yards went eight hours to constitute a day's work. It is probable that it will be conceded.

In St. Louis an end of the railroad strike is expected as an outcome of the labors of the Congressional Investigation Committee.

The Apache Indians are becoming more atrocious than ever. Gen. Miles has left to personally supervise a campaign against them.

The North Side Rolling Mills at Chicago shut down Tuesday for an indefinite period, and about 1,000 men are out of employment.

It is thought at St. Louis that the great railway strike will be declared off in a few days, upon acceptance of efforts to secure the reinstatement of strikers.

Mass meetings in the lumber districts of Chicago made riotous demonstrations, driving non-union workmen away from the McCormick reaper works.

Bishop Robertson, of Missouri, is dead. He was a native of New York City, and was some 47 years old. He was made Episcopal bishop of Missouri in 1868.

THE SOUTH.

Bricklayers at Mobile are on a strike for a day's pay for nine hours' work.

The Supreme Court of Virginia will deliver its opinion in the Cluverius case to-day.

Moon shiners in Tennessee are becoming defiant. A number of conflicts have taken place between them and officers of the law.

Martinsville, Henry county, Va., is to vote June 17th on a subscription of $100,000 to the proposed Roanoke & Southern railroad. Engineers will commence the survey of the road Monday next.

Dr. Charles Upham Sheppard died in Charleston, S. C., Saturday, in the 82d year of his age. He was one of the most prominent scientific men in the country, and a member of many American and foreign societies.

A fire in the stable of the Portsmouth navy yard Friday night caused an exciting general alarm, the frigate Franklin firing guns, and between 4,000 and 5,000 people gathered at the yard. The damage was small.

THE NORTH.

Two men who murdered their wives were hanged in Washington, D. C. Friday.

Edwin Booth, during his personation of Othello, was attacked with vertigo and fell on the stage.

Indictments were found against the leaders of the street railroad strike in New York last week for conspiracy.

The public debt reduction in April is about eleven and a half millions; two millions have been paid out in pensions.

The Senate on Saturday confirmed the nomination of John Bennett as U. S. Attorney to succeed G. M. Dusk in Alabama.

There was a great labor demonstration in Baltimore Monday, participated in by all trades. Six thousand people were in the procession.

There is a general suspension of building in Washington, D. C., but no evidence of trouble, on account of the demand for eight hours as a day's work.

Seed oysters are being exported from Bridgeport, Conn., to England, at the rate of from 150 to 200 barrels a day. They will be planted in the Umber, south of London, and at Carlingford, in Ireland.

FOREIGN.

The Greek Minister of War has resigned.

The reply of the Greek government to the ultimatum of the Powers is considered insufficient.

Four of the wolf-bitten Russians who went to Paris to be treated by M. Pasteur have already died, in spite of the best efforts of the celebrated scientists.

Alfred M. Scales, being prepared for us. We assure you it is something well worth getting.

The Sentinel desires the name and address of every North Carolinian now living in other States, and it earnestly asks of its readers to forward to us all they know of, beside mentioning the matter to their friends, and getting them to do likewise. Our out-of-State exchanges are respectfully requested to assist us also in giving publicity to this paragraph. All of our kindred readers abroad know of many who were formerly from North Carolina. Please send their names on a postal.

Mr. E. B. YANCEY, Ridgeville, Caswell county, N. C., is a duly accredited agent for THE SENTINEL at that place.

THE REASON WHY.

If you receive this copy of The Weekly Sentinel without having ordered it, you will understand that your name has been given us as a wide-awake representative citizen of your section who would be likely to aid a worthy newspaper in reaching the intelligent readers of his county, and of the entire State.

We ask at your hands a careful inspection of the paper, and when you have done so, hand this copy to your neighbor and then see if you can't get us up a club of subscribers in your neighborhood.

CLUBS CLUB RATES.

In clubs of 5 subscribers,	$1.40 each.
" " " 10 "	$1.25 "
" " " 15 "	$1.15 "
" " " 20 "	$1.00 "

Get five of your neighbors, not now on our list, to subscribe, each for one year, to THE SENTINEL, and we will send you a copy free for the same length of time.

LADIES READ THIS.

To the first lady sending us one dollar and fifty cents for a year's subscription to THE SENTINEL during the next week, we will send the Housekeeper one year. The Housekeeper, the price of which is one dollar per year, is one of the best household papers published.

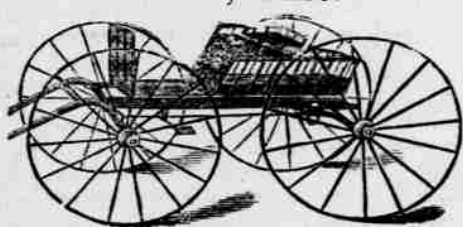

A GOOD FARMER'S PAPER.

To all new cash annual subscribers to THE SENTINEL received previous to May 25th, we will send Country Homes, for one year, without extra charge.

This is a four page, 16 column paper published at Asheville, N. C., and is devoted specially to the interest of the farmers, industrial pursuits, and the development of the natural resources of the State and South. Printed on good paper, clear type, stitched and trimmed, and the subject matter properly arranged in departments—thus making it an attractive and valuable paper for any family.

This offer is open only until May 25. When you send your subscription, say you want Country Homes.
